An Insider's Look at Napa Valley

June 12, 2020

What's open for dining in?

Most Napa County restaurants are open in some fashion. This is a list of those we know about. I expect many additions and changes to keep coming. Take this list with a grain of salt as it comes from many sources and is incomplete. Contact the restaurant before you head out; many require reservations. Almost all continue to offer takeout and delivery.

Please tell me of any errors, changes or additions at paul@napalife.com. I will update this page as I learn new information.

I'm not encouraging people to rush to eat out. It's your choice, but remember that one reason we've had few cases of COVID-19 in Napa Valley is because we've sheltered at home and discouraged visitors from other places by closing the hotels and restaurants.
